MRC ID Badge Distribution: St. Paul Campus

U of M MRC members who work or study primarily on the St. Paul campus are asked to pick up their MRC ID badge on May 24. In the future, all MRC members will need their ID badges to check in for deployments. Members working or studying on the Minneapolis campus are welcome to pick up their MRC ID badges on Monday as well.

Date: Monday, May 24

Time: 11:00am-1:00pm

Location: Pomeroy Building, room 115

Estimated Member Time Commitment: 5 minutes

Goals: Distribute MRC identification badges to over 700 MRC members

Orient all MRC members to the deployment check-in process

What to Bring: Photo ID (Drivers license or U of M ID card)

Recognition of U of M MRC Members Involved in H1N1 Response

The University of Minnesota MRC unit recently received letters of recognition from Robert Tosatto, Director of the National Office of the Civilian Volunteer Medical Reserve Corps and Sanne Magnan, Minnesota Commissioner of Health. Along with the letters of recognition, each MRC member involved in the H1N1 response will receive a “2009-2010 H1N1 Hero Pin” in appreciation for their efforts in containing the spread of H1N1. We appreciate your dedication and commitment to the U of M MRC program and the greater University community.

Member Corner

Q. I was not able to pick up my badge during the MRC ID Badge Distribution Drill. What options are available for me to obtain my badge?

A. Members may stop by our office in the Mayo Memorial building, room C-386. Please call 612-626-4722 before stopping by to make sure there is someone in the office. Students may pick up their badges upon their return to campus. There will be an opportunity in the fall to pick up your badge at a location near Weaver Densford Hall. Details will be forthcoming in the September newsletter.

We welcome questions and comments from MRC members. Email comments or questions to medicalreserve@umn.edu or call Kathy Berlin, MRC Coordinator at 612-626-4722.
